

Appendix B: Smithton Public Library District – Photographs

Entrance to the library parking lot from South Main Street (Highway 159). The library building is just visible on the far left.

Library main entrance. Through-wall book drop door can be seen on left.

Library's entrance foyer with bulletin board, book drop, book exchange shelves, etc.

Circulation area as seen from just inside the main entrance.

Circulation area showing workstations. Note the view of the main library area.

Staff workroom showing entrance and director's desk.

Staff workroom showing kitchenette, supply cabinet, interlibrary loan, and book-shelving book truck.

Staff workroom showing library assistants' desk and file cabinets.

Main library area.

Main library area.

Children's Library.

Location of public restrooms.

Storage room.

Mechanical room.

South Julie Street entrance designated for employee and emergency use only.