COOKBOOK CLUB

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 6 PM

Do you love cooking and trying new recipes? If so, this cookbook club is for you! We're planning to offer this program every other month. Visit the library to sign up for this club and to choose your recipe. This meeting's theme is DESSERT and all recipes come from "Taste of Home" cookbooks! YUMMMM You survived the summer — let's enjoy desserts that you can make for the holidays!

Each participant will make his/her recipe at home and bring it to share with the group. We'll then talk about what worked, what didn't — and what the next meeting's theme or cookbook will be!

Registration is required, and can only be made in person (when you pick your recipe.)

Attendees assume all responsibility for the cooking of their recipes.

Food is prepared in home kitchens not subject to inspection. Food may contain allergens. Attendees choosing to partake of the food and/or drink during the event do so at their own risk.

The library will provide plates, serving spoons, and utensils.
